Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) ever continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, shewing £700,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 90 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1862 shews that all the property of the Co. amounting to £846,070 is real and substantial property;" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co. are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £200,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We have been requested to call Mr. Posadas's attention to the very great necessity of establishing a branch post office at the Parque station of the Western Railroad. We understand that every day some scores of letters are received at the station which are given to peons for distribution. These letter-carriers ask the trifle of five or ten dollars for delivering each letter, which is a most scandalous impost. We have no doubt that whatever expenses the post office might incur by opening a branch office at the Parque, would be more than covered by the increased legitimate receipts of the post office. Aside from the great risk which correspondence incurs by being entrusted to unknown peons, we think it is an encroachment on post office jurisdiction. Mr. Posadas is untiring in his efforts to accommodate the public, we hope therefore he will see the necessity of adopting our suggestion.

Minister Costa has set the Municipality of Buenos Ayres a worthy example in the shape of his new waterworks at his quinta at San Isidro: the Minister has imported from Europe machinery at a very slight cost, by which he supplies the whole of his quinta with River Plate water. We have not seen the works, but, from the description given us, gather that they are simple, cheap and easily worked. The learned Minister says that with half a dozen such machines the whole city of Buenos Ayres could be submerged in ten minutes, and that he agrees with the 'Standard', that the Municipality of Buenos Ayres is the greatest humbug and opprobrium a Republican country—free, enlightened and thirsty—could be be afflicted with.

Our native colleagues seem at last to have opened their eyes to the importance of the gold discoveries in San Juan. As some of our readers refused to believe our version since none of the native papers said a word about the matter, we translate the following which appeared in yesterday's 'Nacion Argentina':

"It is truly fabulous the accounts which we hear from the gold mines of San Juan. The private letters which we have seen, the accounts given us by parties recently arrived from that province, all prove beyond doubt the truth of the news which we at first believed exaggerated. New veins of gold are being discovered each day, of the most unheard of richness. A letter received recently from one of the first men in San Juan assures that the recent gold discoveries will make San Juan the greatest country in all South America. In the provinces not a peon or laborer is to be found for love or money: all have gone to the gold mines. In the next mail fuller details are expected."

The above it must be remembered is taken from the Government paper; therefore we suppose people who refused to believe the 'Standard,' will credit President Mitre's own organ, but we need not be surprised at public incredulity, for well we recollect when the first news of the California gold arrived, no one believed it until a runaway sailor arrived in New York, bought a magnificent house in South street, chartered half-a-dozen vessels, and loaded them for San Francisco: people asked where he got the money? he was the first gold-digger from California. Ten thousand young men left that week for the diggings. The San Juan gold may yet prove a similar business.

We received a letter from Dublin enquiring the whereabouts of a Mr. [illegible] Gormley, who arrived in this country in 1862. Should any person know of the individual in question they will please communicate with Mr. Michl. Gormley, Westland-row, Dublin.

Notwithstanding all the abuse which our collegues hurl at Paraguay, we are glad to see that President Mitre is beginning to imitate President Lopez, and send a number of young Argentines to Europe to be educated at the cost of the Government. This is decidedly a move in the right direction. We would hint to his Excellency, however, that as the Government can afford to send away youths to become artillery officers, it might also strain a point to send a few Porteños to our ship-yards and arsenals, for positively here in Buenos Ayres a parent who wishes to make something of his sons must either put them behind a counter; or, worse still, into a lawyer's office; there is no other opening.

The last Indian invasion is probably the most daring on record. Every day we are getting further details; even the people of Rosario became alarmed. We are assured that some of the savages attacked the railway and walked off with some of the rails; the works of the road were suspended for four days. People in Santa Fé are extremely alarmed, and some say that Dr. Rawson had better take care wherever he goes to have a good escort, as about a year ago the Indians seized a live Juez de Paz in one of the Provinces, and no trace or tiding has been heard of the poor fellow since. If the savages could overtake our talented minister in his rambles, possibly they might carry him off and make him King of the Gran Chaco.

Mr. Lanuz has got himself into a hot dispute with some of our leading economists. The "Nacional" and "Tribuna" publish very severe replies to this interpid wholesale merchant, who has the courage to assert that the five thousand paper dollar bills are hardly worth the paper they are printed on. We certainly, if compelled to take sides in the dispute, join in with our friend Don Anacharsis, who is less visionary and more practical than some of his opponents. Mr. Rom's reply to Mr. Lanuz is, however, a very strong argument in favor of the occult science of economy, and merits attention. Meanwhile, and notwithstanding all the arguments, bank burning, etc., patacons are steadily rising. Respecting the paper dollar and bank laws, about which there is so much enquiry, they are all passed now, the General Assembly of the Legislature having finally disposed of the railway and land law last week.

A subscriber from Chivilcoy informs us that rain is much wanted out in that locality, and that in a few days the farmers will have to commence drawing water. The grass is plentiful enough but water is scarce.

The Brazilian blockade, we understand, began to run from yesterday The Consul advertises the affair in the government paper in the most business-like manner. It will be rather exciting sport running the blockade. We hope some of our friends will attempt it.

The most go-ahead spot about town is the Lomas de Zamorra. Building sites which could have been bought for a trifle a few years ago, are now selling at city prices. Some of our friends, gifted with speculation in the eye, bought large tracts and are now selling at enormous profits. When the railway is open it will be one of the prettiest suburbs about Buenos Ayres.

The halls of our University for law students are now closed. As we have a sufficiency of legal talent at present, we hope it will be some time before they are re-opened.

Yesterday morning coming into town we met two of our leading American merchants going down to inspect some wool in Barracas. This looks well, and we hope to see our American friends again buying wool. We learn that all wool sold under $88 can be shipped to the Sates at one-half duties. The news however from the States by the packet is bad, particularly regarding dry hides, which are now selling there at 13 cts.; in fact it is the general belief that dry hides are about to suffer a further decline here, as the stocks on hand are enormous.

Next packet we expect to receive a letter from our London correspondent, which we have no doubt will interest our readers here, as besides general news our correspondent promises to notice all matters concerning the River Plate in England.

We have received Mr. Gilmour's paper read at the Social Science Congress, and will publish it shortly, Mr. G. deserves the thanks of all Argentines for calling special attention to this country.

A TRIP ON THE NORTHERN RAILWAY.

In common with hundreds of otther citizens we made an excursion on Sunday morning to San Fernando, and take this occasion to recommend such a trip in this delightful season to persons confined to the warehouse or office for 16 hours per day during the rest of the week.

The service of the Northern railway is at present admirable, the powerful locomotives and new saloon-carriages being all that could be desired. Shifting carriages at the Retiro is inconvenient, and we shall be glad when the locomotive takes the place of the tramway conveyance in Paseo Julio. The number of persons who travel on the line on Sundays is incredible, and it is significant that many copies of the 'Standard' may be seen in each carriage. Palermo palace will soon be a most hideous sight, thanks to the Goths and Huns who are making their "improvements," but it must pain the eye of the painter or landscape gardener still more, to see the grounds in such lamentable and increasing neglect. The new cricket-ground is the only sign of vitality, and close to the station: when the pavillion is erected it will be quite an attraction.

Belgrano is decidedly the favorite place, where more than half the passengers get out, and the wonderful growth of this new suburb is nowise checked, but rather increasing in geometrical ratio, as Mr. Deacon of the hotel can testify. Two rival establishments have just been built on either side of the station: the Northern rail way hotel on the site of Champion's tent, and the grand Restaurant on the right of the line. Passing Mr. White's lovely quinta at Riyadavia, we call to mind the absurd claim of the Belgrano municipality to the bajos or lands on the margin of the river, of which, by the by, we never heard the result.

What charming vis-in-urbes now succeed one another along the 'barranca,' and the majestic La Plata stretches away like an ocean on our right. At Olivos we come to Mr. Wineberge's villa on the site of the abortive Pueblo Mitre: this is undoubtedly the finest situation in the environs of Buenos Ayres, but the owner is so greedy that he has over-reached himself, and instead of seeing his township covered with 100 handsome cottages, he lives in lonely grandeur. If he came down 90 per cent. in his demands and the railway gave a free-life-ticket to any parties building here, we should see this picturesque "punta" take the lead of the unleafy Belgrano.

There is an ascent to San Isidro, the church of which soon appears above cheerful fields of Indian corn and oats which abound hereabout, and the scenery is almost like a midland county in England. Mr. Brittain's delightful retreat is passed before we get to San Fernando, and here the "boundless prairie" of the Pampa commences, the town being at some distance to the right of the station.

In an evil hour we got into an omnibus bound for that much-praised locality Las Conchas, and soon had painful proof that the "camino real" of San Fernando was not constructed on the macadamised principle or after the method of the Via Appia. The townspeople stood at their doors gaping at the omnibus as if it did not pass by six times a day, or as if they thought its occupants metropolitan curiosities. Manet's hotel is got up "regardless of expense," a character the proprietor has well carried!

We started off for the Tigre at a smart gallop (in the omnibus), but oh! ye deities of locómotion, Phaeton, Mercury, Æolus and the rest, say by what dire vengeance of Olympus the access to the Elysian fields of Las Conchas has been rendered such a break-neck, bone-disjointing and alarming passage. We felt practically the idea of steeple-chasing the whole way to the river of the Tigre, and here we performed the crowning feat of shooting the bridge almost in the same manner as the Thames wherries did London bridge in the last century, or the Rhone steamers still do the Pont St. Esprit. There is an inequality in this Tigre bridge which makes the 'bus jump the second half clean, landing on the opposite bank. It is awfully sensational the first time, but we have no doubt people become accustomed to it, like everything else.

The man who first built a house in the swamps of Las Conchas had a grudge against mankind, and should either have been beheaded as a malefactor, or immured in a lunatic asylum. We should as soon think of building a country-house on the point of Cape Horn, or removing our office to the Gran Chaco, as seeking out such a morass; and yet the force of fashion has raised up charming villas and cottages all around, which would indeed be eligible retreats if 100 feet higher, or at least above high-water level. It is a pity to calculate the millions of hard dollars expended in these sedgy swamps, where the inhabitants must expect some fine morning to be taken off their roofs in boats. No! better to pay Mr. Wineberg a dollar the square inch for his land high and dry, than to smother one's-self in the brushwood at Las Conchas.

We had heard so much of the Tigre during the last five years that we expected too much, and we returned, sadly disappointed, just in time to catch the 12.55 return train. At Belgrano we met the train from town laden with fashion and beauty, and Mr. Watson, the station-master, was evidently at his wit's end to attend to everything and everybody. It is pleasing to have to bear testimony to the uniform vigilance and politeness of all the officers and servants on this line, and we again advise those bent on an excursion, to go to San Fernando. We saw the railway continuation works, which are far advanced and would have been ready for the locomotive as far as the Tigre by Dec. 15th, but for a delay in receiving the rails. The line, however, will be infallibly opened for traffic, simultaneously with the Western to Mercedes, by Christmas day.

COLONIZATION OF THE RIO NEGRO.

Sooner or later, and the sooner the better, the frontier of this province must be carried out to the Rio Negro, which will form a more effectual and easily defended line than the straggling picquets at present in use, apparently for no other purpose than to give account of how many times per month the barbarians come to steal cattle.

M. Legout, in the columns of the "Nacion," informs us of a splendid project to colonize the vast territory of 3,000 squnre leagues lying between the rivers Colorado and Negro. The Company proposes to Government to introduce 20,000 European agricultural families within five years, on condition of a cavalry force of 2,000 men, under Colonel Machado, being placed for that period to defend the territory from Indians.

The title of "General Emigration & Credit Co." is explained by the terms which will be offered to emigrants. Each family of at least three persons will receive value to the amount of £150 sterling, as follows: free passage, a rancho with two apartments, food and support for the first year, seeds and implements, and in stock 1 horse, 2 oxen, 2 cows, and 100 sheep. The emigrant will be required, in return, to sign bills for £200, payable as follows: 6 per cent interest per annum—£12; 1 per cent amortization—£2; ½ per cent expenses of management—£1. Total £15 per annum, so that in forty years the emigrant will be clear, and owner in fee. Each family will receive 12 cuadras (40 acres) of land for tillage, and have the pasture land of the colony in common with the rest.

It is calculated that the 100 sheep will alone suffice to cover the annual payment of £15, yielding 10 arrobes (250 lb.) of wool at $60, and giving an increase of 40 lambs, the first payment being only required at the end of the second year. The territory to be ceded to the company comprises about 17 millions of acres (Ireland covers only 20 millions), but the area north of Rio Colorado, which would become habitable public lands, is just five times this extent. Hence we see that Government would be an immense gainer, in return for the expense of maintaining a garrison of 2000 men during 5 years, and guaranteeing the bills signed by emigrants.

The enterprise is certainly the grandest yet proposed in these countries, the capital being £3,000,000, the minimum number of emigrants 60,000, and the territory recovered from the Indians 170,000 square miles, or as large as the whole of Spain. One remarkable feature is the abolition of frontier-service after five years, which would be a great relief to the Finance Department, and it is calculated that within twenty years the colonists would number 200,000. We believe the enterprise is wholly German, and hope the Government will view the matter with favor.

IRELAND.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

Dublin, October 8th.

The high rate of discount prevailing in the English Money Market, is seriously affecting commercial and trading interests. Foreign Stocks, of almost every description, have declined, owing to the tightness of money. Yesterday (October 7th), in London, the Shares of the Bank of Buenos Ayres and River Plate were quoted 40 to 40½; do., Deferred, 37 to 39. In railways, Northern of Buenos Ayres, guaranteed, 7 per cent. (all paid), are quoted 9 to 10; and the Two-and-a-Halfs, ½ dis. and ½ prem. Many failures have been notified both here and in England among the small traders, owing to the rate for accommodation; but no panic is anticipated in the presence of a more than average harvest, and the favourable nature of there venue returns, which shows that trade has been free from the system of reckless speculation, the primary cause of a general commercial crisis. The most noticeable feature in connection with this subject, is the stoppage of the Leeds Bank (Joint-Stock), with liabilities amounting to £2,000,000. This failure will seriously affect the woollen trade, hence I desire to bring the facts briefly before you. During the past ten years the shareholders in this concern have received double the amount invested by them, the per centage per annum on the dividends within that period ranging from £15 to £25. There is no reason to doubt that this failure was directly caused through too much confidence being placed in the manager of the bank, that individual lending himself to worthless speculations, in the hope of "realizing" on his own account. The case is one furnishing a useful lesson to over-confident directors and shareholders; a class proverbial for carelessness in the supervision of their servants.

Wool—Trade circulars from Halifax, Bradford, and Glasgow (October 6th), represent business in wool as being almost at a stand-still. Spinners are getting short of stocks, and holders in the meantime remain quiet. Arrivals of foreign small, and prices of home-grown advancing.

Tallow—For some time past the market has been dull and prices flat. In London, on October 7th, prices rallied, and South American tallow brought from 42s. to 42s. 6d., 1st pipes. Within the preceding week 350 casks South American had been imported. The high rates for cattle prevailing in Great Britain and Ireland, favour foreign importers, and the price of tallow will advance.

Hides—Short supply of foreign. Sellers holding back, enhanced prices being refused.

Provisions.—Every description of meat (fresh and cured) commands higher prices than have prevailed for the past two years in Great Britain and Ireland. In Dublin at the present time inferior beef sells at from 6d. to 7d.; prime, 10d. to 1s. per lb. Mutton ranges from 7d. to 9d.; bacon, 8d. to 10d. per lb. Such is the scarcity of prime cattle, that dealers now import oxen from Spain, and sheep from the South of England. I record these facts in order to show your speculative readers that a good market is open here for South American cured provisions. Indeed I feel certain that direct importation of jerked beef to Dublin would leave a handsome margin of profit, seeing that the operative and laboring classes are unable to purchase fresh or home-cured meat at present high rates. Dealers of experience anticipate still further enhanced prices for every description of stock during the ensuing winter and spring, therefore foreign supplies would find a ready sale.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

The harvest has been somewhat earlier in Ireland this year, and the returns of the average yield of produce generally favorable. In the North-west and West late crops have suffered, and the farmers in those districts will incur much loss, owing to the heavy rains. It may gratify natives of "the Old Land" at a distance to learn that a hopeful change is beginning to take place in the prospects of the Irish farmer. From the Register-General's report for 1864 I take the following encouraging facts. In Ireland this year there is an increase of 10,493 acres under crops compared with the year preceding. There is an increase in the number of cattle and sheep! and pork brings 56 shillings per cwt.; a price which, with a plentiful crop of potatoes, will make "the pigs pay the rent." There is a remarkable increase in the quantity of flax, amounting to 87,761 acres over last year. The season has been favorable for the growth of the fibre; and in the northern markets flax (scutched) sells at from 7s. to 12s. per stone. The railways afford the farmers of Leinster, Munster, and Connaught facilities for conveying the flax to the Ulster markets, and thus another element tending towards our future prosperity is being developed. In the South and West capitalists have commenced the erection of mills for the manufacture of linen, and there is every prospect of the staple trade of Ulster being extended throughout Ireland, affording remunerative employment to thousands of young persons now immured in dreary poor-houses. The great fair of Ballinasloe (which concluded yesterday, Oct. 7,) was marked by a large attendance of buyers, high prices, and rapid sales for every kind of stock. The results flowing from this great national tryst affect business generally, less or more, throughout Ireland. On the present occasion those results have been favorable, and better times are confidently anticipated. It may interest your extensive flock-masters to learn that the number of sheep sold at Ballinasloe, in one day, amounted to 57,424—the top price of wethers being 66s. 6d., and ewes 50s. each. While on the subject of sheep, I may observe that at a recent sale at Edinburgh, Leicesters went at an average price of £9 4s. each, the clip of each animal yielding from 19 to 20 lbs. of wool. Some of those Leicesters weighed 30 st. 7lb.

Having disposed of the specie carnero, I will now turn to matters affecting género humano:—The disgraceful riots, springing from the old feud between "Orange and Green", having subsided, a special commission of Assizes will be held within the present month at Belfast. There are 120 persons in prison on charges arising out of the riots—five for wilful murder; 30 for aggravated assaults; and the remainder with having fire-arms in their possession. Among the prisoners is an inspector of police, charged with inciting an Orange mob to riot. The number of persons killed and wounded cannot be correctly stated; but it is believed that upwards of twelve lives were lost, and 200 persons received wounds of a serious character.

Wednesday morning, October 5, the premises of W. Kavenagh, druggist, in North street, were destroyed by fire; the loss amounted to £4,000.

At Cabrah, County Armagh, on the 21st September, a man named John M'Carragh, was killed in a corn-field by the wheel of a heavily-laden cart passing over his body. Mr. John Obius Woodhouse, of Omeath Park, Newry, while walking in London, fell and fractured his thigh-bone—on 4th October he was in a precarious state. The Rev. Dr. Birmingham has been appointed Vice President of the Roman Catholic College of Carlow. At Ballina, Mayo, on the 23d Sept., O'Connor, keeper of the Bridewell, committed suicide by shooting himself with a pistol. On the 23d September, Mr. William Hodson, of Toolobane, Loughrea, murdered his wife, and then committed suicide. The constabulary found Mrs. Hodson on the ground outside the house, the husband's cheek resting on hers, and both their throats cut. James Cunningham, son of Mr. Bernard Cunningham, of Boyle, Rosecommon, entered the Federal army two years ago as a private. For his gallantry in the field, the President of the United States has presented him with the commission of Captain in the 4th Dragoons; (Regulars), together with a gold medal for distinguished services — so much for Irish bravery. The Emperor of Mexico has accredited the son of a Kerry man as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Prussia — Señor Don Thomas Murphy having been lately received at Schœnbrum. The Señor has visited Kerry and found a goodly number of "cousins-jarmin." On the evening of the 27th September the noble mountain of Slievnamon presented a brilliant spectacle, owing to the heath, with which its sides are extensively covered, having taken fire. A strong westerly breeze fanned the flames, and the country for miles around was illuminated. An old man named Hynes, 80 years of age, residing at Tiaquin, Galway, left his house at twelve o'clock on the night of the 22d of Sept., and on search being made for him, he was found in a field covered with blood, having attempted to cut his throat — the trachea being almost severed, no hopes of his recovery are entertained. "Mushrooms in horse-loads, and honey in heaps of hives," throng the markets of Limerick — the honey selling at from 4d. to 6d. per lb. At Bandon (Cork), on 26th Sept., John Keyes, Esq., deceased, Provincial Bank, was interred with Masonic honors. The brethren wore white gloves, and a sprig of acacia on the left breast, secured with a blue or red ribbon, in conformity with the Masonic status of the wearer.

The dedication of the beautiful new Catholic Church of Ballymote (Sligo), took place on Sunday, 4th October, at which several prelates, a large number of clergy, and hundreds of the inhabitants of the surrounding districts attended.

At Bantry (Cork), Michael Lynch has confessed to the murder of his father. The facts of the case are briefly as follows:—Michael Lynch and his father had been on bad terms, on account of the latter (who was a widower) holding intercourse with a woman in the neighbourhood. Early in September the son provided himself with a loaded gun, lay in wait for his father for two hours, and on his appearing, stole behind the unfortunate man, and lodged the contents of the piece in his neck. On hearing his father groan loudly, this inhuman wretch clubbed the gun, and struck deceased twice heavily on the head Lynch will be tried at the spring assizes. On the 13th September a rare discovery was made in St. Canice's Cathedral, Kilkenny, being no less than the ancient vault of the Ormond family, all recollection of which had been lost. The contents were six coffins, with escutcheons and armorial bearings, one bearing the date 1564. Along the floor, in the centre of the vault, lay a leaden coffin, exactly shaped to the proportions of the human body, with features regularly formed, hands, feet, &c. Several learned antiquaries have been invited to examine those interesting relics of the past, pending which the vault has been sealed up by the Marchioness of Ormond.

Monday, 10th October, the statue of the great apostle of temperance, the pious priest and true philanthropist, Father Theobald Mathew, will be unveiled in Cork. A grand procession will form part of the ceremony, in which the trades, with their banners, &c., will take part. The proceedings will take the character of a great national fete, the friends of temperance from all parts of Ireland attending. The site of the statue is nearly opposite Mr. Donegan's house, and within some eighty yards of the crossing or line from Lavett's-quay to Merchant's-quay.

It is proposed to raise a monument to perpetuate the memory of Smith O'Brien (a man who loved his country not wisely but too well); and Irishmen in every part of the globe are invited to contribute. The Roman Catholic Bishops of Limerick and Ross are taking an active part in the movement, which has met with some success among the operative classes in Ireland.

MONTEVIDEO.

The Paraguayan mail-steamer arrived yesterday with Sunday's papers.

We have in vain looked for the news of Caraballo's death and the destruction of 600 Colorados which was announced by the Chief of Colonia, to be transmitted to Montevideo in a pilot-boat from this city. Probably said pilot-boat was the one in which Mr. Petty got wrecked, and consequently the news was not known till the arrival of the French packet on Sunday. The latest despatches from head-quarters were dated Uejera, Nov. 9th. General Gomez pursued the rebels so closely that they were breaking up into bands of fugitives, making for the rivers Yi and Negro in different directions; their two main bodies were hurrying towards Malvajar and Paso del Rey.

Several deserters passed over to the Government army, and state that Flores had concealed his remaining piece of cannon in a wood. The waggons which fell into the pursuer's hands are new and very convenient for army purposes. The Blanco army is said to be in high spirits and determined to follow up the rebels actively until the latter be annihilated. The most heart-rending barbarities are said to be committed by Flores on his flight, against both native and foreign residents, but this is like Satan rebuking sin, as the atrocities of the Government troops since the murder of Mr Smith have never been equalled in any time or country.

Dates from the Army of Reserve are to the 10th inst. Colonel Cames had joined General Saa with 350 cavalry and 70 infantry. Saa's division has seized several bands of stragglers en route for Las Minas, and his detached corps hold possession of the districts of Canelones, San José, Florida, and part of Minas. The Plata publishes, under "latest intelligence," an official notice that Flores was making for Cerro-Largo so rapidly that Servando Gomez gave up the pursuit.

The devotions of the month of Mary, at the Ejercicios Chapel, were numerously attended: Mdlles. Gowland, Mazzini and Perez sing every evening, the first-named lady being a celebrated cantatrice.

The Finance Office announces the new loan contracted by Government of 500,000$ in bonds, at 87, bearing 12 per cent. interest, and 24 per cent. amortization: for security are given the Custom-House building and 15,000$ of the monthly rents.

The "Reforma" states that Flores' army is now reduced to 900 men. The English gun-boat Sattelite, in her last trip from Buenos Ayres to Montevideo, saw a wrecked vessel with a mast above water, about 11 miles off Colonia, N.E. by quarter E.

LIVERPOOL LETTER.

Liverpool, Oct. 7, 1864.

To the Editors.

Dear Sirs,

We have had a very uneasy time in the money market, and many failures have taken place here, in London and elsewhere. Prices of most descriptions of produce have fallen considerably. Cotton has declined 25 a 30 p ⅝; in some instances even more. American cotton has suffered most of all, there having been a continued good demand for export to the States, but even middling Orleans has had a tumble from 32d to 26d per lb., the value to-day.

The prospects ahead are still squally, and we cannot yet say that we have seen the worst, though we hope so. The bank returns continue unfavorable, and the minimum rate of discount is still 9 p ⅝. Under these circumstances all enterprise is checked, and people endeavor to limit their engagements as much as possible. The 400 or 500 bales seed cotton mentioned in our last turned out not to be from Rio Grande, but from the West Indies. It was valued at the time about 9d per lb., but would now be worth much less.

NEW OPERA COMPANY.

Mr. Pestalardo has been so kind as to advise us from Rio Janeyro that he has contracted in that city a new company of lyric performers, who may be expected in Buenos Ayres by the end of the month, per French packet.

The singers, choristers, &c., are all juvenile, the eldest being but 14 years: they are from Florence, and number 60 of both sexes, including a first-rate ballet company.

We have to congratulate Sor. Pestalardo on his success in the enterprise, as the juvenile company was so popular in Rio that the people did not wish to allow them to leave. We may promise our foreign friends a treat when this company arrives, and the deserted halls of Colon will soon become again a centre of attraction, thanks to the untiring enterprise of our spirited lessee.

THE TURF.

We are requested to intimate to the sporting community that a match will come off on the Belgrano race course, between the two cracks, 'Santiagenio,' or 'Volunteer,' and 'Engonador,' of once-and-a half round, on next Sunday afternoon, at five p.m. Both horses are half-bred, one of English and the other of Irish descent.

PASSENGERS PER S.M.S. MERSEY.

Paper money was in the ascendant to-day, owing to the extraordinary rumours in circulation as to what the Bank intends to do. New bonds, new certificates, new vales, or new shares; in fact, new paper under every conceivable denomination, it was said, the Bank Directors were thinking of emitting to redeem the old paper dollars. It may do, but we candidly think that these shifts are the grossest deception ever attempted on an intelligent public, paper will never redeem paper. And this system of mystification causes in the end nothing but public loss. We want gold, and until we get the gold all the laws in Buenos Ayres will be ineffectual to reduce its value.

The exchange operation on England which we noticed yesterday was for a small amount, but the rate we are told was 49. It is generally believed that a good deal of gold will leave in the packet, unless perhaps the bank directors emit without delay their new certificates in which case we suppose we will be told that they will be remitted in preference to specie.

We doubt if there is a spot in Buenos Ayres where so much nonsense is current as on the Bolsa: a broker enters the hall breathless, and rushes to the rail, he neither buys nor sells, but watches what's going on—all eyes centre on him from the King to the porter, and suddenly the news is that he has been on the top of the Captain of the Ports, or in the Bank parlour, and knows a trifle; or been up at the plazas and has seen more wool coming in than all the paper dollars in town will pay for. Then the rail shakes, specie trembles, and paper dollars go up. There is an eternal dust-storm on the Bolsa, which precludes the possibility of people seeing ahead: to-day everything looks well, to-morrow quien sabe?

The news from the wool markets is rather better to-day; in the south plaza we heard the following sales from the most trustworthy persons:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 332 | ar. fine mestiza | | $100 |
| 510 | do | do | 92 |
| 315 | do | do | 96 |

In the North Plaza we hear that one of our friends opened his carts, offered his wool at 130. He could get no higher bid than 105, and yielding at the moment to his honest indignation, he called the tropero, ordered up the bullocks, and sent his wool back to his estancia, there to remain until he thinks proper to send it in again. The buyers were slightly surprised at the heroism of so independent a farmer.

We are happy to say that 100 barrels prime mess beef goes per Mersey to Rio packed by our friends Morris & Boyd.

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

No. 103 Calle de Cangallo,
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p %) per annum, which is liquidated ever six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes, can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book, it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

BENSON'S WATCHES AND CLOCKS.

Watch and Clock Maker, by Special Appointment, to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's Great Clock and Watches in the Exhibition, 1862.

"As a sample of English clock work on a large scale, the works of this are probably the finest finished that have ever been seen in this country. No Chronometer could be fitted with more perfectness or carefully adjusted mechanism."—Times, June 11 1862.

"A triumph of ingenuity."—Telegraph March 11 1862.

"A more splendid and exquisitely finished piece of mechanism we have never seen."—Standard, June 17 1862.

"Some of them are of great beauty and if the English watch-trade only follow up with the same spirit and success this first attempt to compete with foreigners in decorative watches, there seems to be no reason why we should not get the trade entirely into our own hands."—Times, June 23, 1862.

"Ranged around the base of the clock were the Watches which Mr. Benson exhibited, and which have been universally admired for the beauty and elegance of the designs engraved upon them. The movements are of the finest quality which the art of horology is at present capable of producing. The clock and watches were objects of great attraction, and well repaid the trouble of an inspection."—Illustrated London News, November 8, 1862.
